

FastPath Games

A Visual Archive

Storms, packages, orbital repairs, a city route, and an island mystery.

5 games / 20 distinct images / audited publication edition

A collection of existing game renders, QA captures, and public portfolio pages. Published as visual history with image provenance and coverage limits.

A record of the games

This book archives five games represented in local project material and the Grounded DI Desktop Builds repository. Images are preserved as found; no game artwork was generated for this edition.

03 The Tornado

Collect-and-grow play across city streets, a beach, ice, and a rainbow road.

08 The Courier: Wrong Door

Route packages through a small network to their matching destinations.

13 PUT THE MOON BACK

An orbital puzzle about moving the Moon while watching the consequences of each intervention.

18 Grounded DI City - The Morning Line

A city-and-tram puzzle with route controls, junction progress, and a cargo ledger.

19 Page Two

A storybook mystery set on Bellweather Island in summer 1985: find the glasses and follow the clues.

Each image appears once. Source types and incomplete coverage are identified on the image pages and in the accompanying README.

01 / New York

The city field contains blocks, cones, small objects, and the tornado.

Existing local visual QA renders; these frames omit the native HUD. Rainbow Road is level 4 in the inspected 1.3.0 menu, not a separate fifth level.

02 / The Seaside

A sandy field introduces beach objects and a warm palette.

Existing local visual QA renders; these frames omit the native HUD. Rainbow Road is level 4 in the inspected 1.3.0 menu, not a separate fifth level.

03 / Fire & Ice

The opening icy field shows flags and scattered collectible objects.

Existing local visual QA renders; these frames omit the native HUD. Rainbow Road is level 4 in the inspected 1.3.0 menu, not a separate fifth level.

04 / Rainbow Road

Colored lanes and star shapes give the fourth adventure its visual identity.

Existing local visual QA renders; these frames omit the native HUD. Rainbow Road is level 4 in the inspected 1.3.0 menu, not a separate fifth level.

Rainbow Road / Finale

The existing finale render reads: A whole rainbow, tucked away. This is not evidence of a newly completed run.

Existing local visual QA renders; these frames omit the native HUD. Rainbow Road is level 4 in the inspected 1.3.0 menu, not a separate fifth level.

Opening route

The network, package, destinations, and score are visible.

Existing local visual QA captures. File names identify scenarios; the images do not establish a newly completed session.

Package traffic

The QA scenario is named two-package-overlap; this frame records its network state.

Existing local visual QA captures. File names identify scenarios; the images do not establish a newly completed session.

Stage 3 / Overdrive

An escalation capture from the local QA collection, with route and score feedback.

Existing local visual QA captures. File names identify scenarios; the images do not establish a newly completed session.

Rescue scenario

The QA capture is named successful-rescue. Its score and destination feedback are preserved.

Existing local visual QA captures. File names identify scenarios; the images do not establish a newly completed session.

Shift clear

The existing completion capture shows SHIFT CLEAR, a score, and AGAIN.

Existing local visual QA captures. File names identify scenarios; the images do not establish a newly completed session.

YOUR MOON

It remembers what you did to it.

BACK

Campaign history is cosmetic during future missions so old heroics cannot corrupt a scenario's authoritative starting state. Your Moon still carries the souvenirs.

PUT THE MOON BACK

09 / 10

The portfolio presents a persistent Moon profile: It remembers what you did to it. This is not a replay-verification result.

Existing public visual portfolio, pages 2, 3, 4, 6, and 9. Portfolio framing is retained. A local mission was separately opened during the earlier review.

Audit Blue / City route

The city view shows the tram, route choices, cargo ledger, and junction progress together.

One existing public gameplay capture is available in this edition. The requested 3-5 images are not yet met for this game; no completed live run is claimed.

A Little Mystery Comes Into Focus

The title screen offers New Story, Settings, and Credits.

Four pages from the existing public v1.0 screenshot PDF. Added during publication audit; no runnable build was opened for this game.

Comfort & Sound

Settings expose sound, reduced motion, reduced blur, high contrast, and text speed.

Four pages from the existing public v1.0 screenshot PDF. Added during publication audit; no runnable build was opened for this game.

Credits / Version 1.0.0

The credits identify Grounded DI and describe the original family adventure.

Four pages from the existing public v1.0 screenshot PDF. Added during publication audit; no runnable build was opened for this game.

Chapter One / Mailboat Cabin

Out of Focus introduces Listen, Touch, a notebook, and a gentle nudge.

Four pages from the existing public v1.0 screenshot PDF. Added during publication audit; no runnable build was opened for this game.

Five games, with room to grow

The Tornado / 5 images

The Courier: Wrong Door / 5 images

PUT THE MOON BACK / 5 images

Grounded DI City - The Morning Line / 1 images

Page Two / 4 images

Tornado coverage includes four levels and a Rainbow Road finale. The Morning Line has one image, so this edition does not meet the original 3-5-image target for every game.

Galaxy Chess Explorer: Strategy Quest remains a discovery lead: a local safety document was found, but no runnable build was located. It is not counted among the five illustrated games.

The archive is a bounded collection of identified material, not a claim that every game or level has been found or completed. See README.md for sources and audit notes.
